

BIRTH TRAUMA AWARENESS WEEK

Join the Conversation

10th September 6^{PM} - 8^{PM} Health Professionals (canapes and drinks)
11th September 9:30^{AM} - 11:30^{AM} Parents (morning tea)

Mercure Kawana Waters
9 Florey Blvd, Birtinga 4575

Australasian
birthtrauma
Association

Amy Dawes - Co-Founder and CEO of Australasian Birth Trauma Association

Amy will introduce our event and speak about ABTA - who they are, what they do and provide information on ABTA's services and community.

Eliza Pike - Director/ Owner of Blackbird House and Blackbird Counselling (perinatal counselling)

Eliza will discuss psychological birth trauma, what it means, how it happens, how to recover and go on to have subsequent births without anxiety.

Candice Lamb - Women's Physiotherapist with Sports and Spinal

Candice will discuss physical birth trauma and what you can do in pregnancy, birth and the postnatal period to prevent and/or treat any physical injuries from birth.

Vicki Holmes - Principal Medical Lawyer, Slater and Gordon Sunshine Coast

Legal issues impacting Parents and/or Children in association with Birth Trauma and the Law.

About Special Guest - Amy Dawes

Co-founder/CEO - Australasian Birth Trauma Association (ABTA)

After Amy's own experience of a traumatic birth, Amy became an advocate for bringing women, clinicians and researchers together to prevent, diagnose, treat and support women and their families that have experienced birth trauma. In 2016 Amy established a charity called the Australasian Birth Trauma Association (ABTA). She is passionate about speaking out and breaking the stigma associated with psychological and/or physical injuries after birth trauma.

RSVP before 8th September to: admin@blackbirdcounselling.com.au

Note - numbers are strictly limited by COVID restrictions so please rsvp as soon as you can to secure your place. This event is FREE.

Ask questions you would like covered at the event by emailing: michael.ford@slatertgordon.com.au

